-------------------------	---------	--------

- (1) Suppose a friend or family asks you this weekend, "what is 'ethics?'"
Write down a one-sentence answer to this question.

- (2) Suppose a friend or family asks you this weekend, "what is 'computer science?'" Write down a one-sentence answer to this question.

- (3) What are the four main ethical frameworks we have discussed so far?

- (4) Choose one framework from the previous question, and summarize it in one or two sentences.

- (5) Write down four (or more) aspects of this class that you like or enjoy at this point in the semester. Try to include one "I like..." from each person in the group.
- (6) Write down four (or more) aspects of the class that you wish might change for the second half of the semester. Again, try to include one "I wish..." from each person in the group.
